- 1. Missionaries: Pray for Carl & Naomi Epp, serving with NCEM: "McArthur River Mine was shut down for the month of July. During this time, Naomi and I went to Kerith Retreats in south-eastern Manitoba for a time of rest and refreshment and to have God challenge us in our personal lives. Kerith Retreats is a place for people in ministry to take on a resting time for a week. It is put on by Focus on the Family. Jesus would go aside and spend some time getting refreshed. It was good for us to do that as well. In August I was able to take another week off from work so that we could go to our NCEM conference in southern Manitoba and also spend some time with our family. This summer I took Naomi out on the lake for an hour and a half boat ride, and I did a wedding for our neighbour's daughter. It was nice to be a part of it. About a month later I did another wedding for a fellow missionary who got married after having lost his wife. It was enjoyable to be at that wedding and to do that wedding. Now the lake is frozen, and some snow is on the ground. With work there will be changes because of layoffs that Cameco is doing in January, 2018. We will trust God to see what He has in store."
