- 1. Missionary Focus: Pray for Michael and Deb, serving with GEM: “We wanted to give an update on our summer. We will be in Belgium in early July, then back to France for a week and then in Canada. The past year has been intense in so many ways. We continue to have to be careful about scheduling with Abigail as we are still using her feeding tube a bit and she is still quite particular about the timing of her eating and getting enough to eat. Praise the Lord, our church is growing, with God bringing new people from various walks of life and backgrounds. We celebrated the baptism of Audrey, a newer sister in Christ! In the long term we need to increase our monthly support to cover the increase in rent we will have in the fall when we plan to move to a 2-bedroom apartment. This will allow much needed breathing space for us as a family and the ability to more easily host meals, small groups and people in the home, which is so valuable to us as we seek to share Christ. We want to make you aware of this need so that you can pray with us, and even consider new or changed partnerships, if God prompts you.
See the bulletin board for their complete letter.

EMMC Statement on Mission:

Church and Mission. God the Father is inviting all people to enter the kingdom, to accept salvation in Jesus Christ, and to enjoy the blessings of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit empowers the church in obeying the command of Jesus to go and make disciples of all nations. The church is called to send missionaries into the world and to support them in prayer. The church will continue God's mission until the end of the age.

Proclaiming the Gospel. The church communicates the Gospel through spoken and written words. We proclaim that Jesus Christ is the only way of salvation. Through the death and resurrection of Jesus, sins are forgiven and reconciliation with God is available. We proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ through worship celebrations, bold preaching, teaching the Bible, intercessory prayer, local and international missions.

Living the Gospel. The church communicates the Gospel through service. By serving others, the church embodies the love of Christ in the world. Through inspiring worship, fervent prayer, biblical teaching, and supportive relationships, we are exhorted to service for Christ. We serve others with the love of Christ. We display generosity, justice, and compassion to those at risk and to those on the outside of society. The Gospel needs words for explanation, and actions for integrity.

Leadership for Mission. Spiritual leadership is vital for enabling the church to fulfill God's mission. Following the Spirit's lead, the church will be creative in organizing ministries for a diversity of people and contexts. Congregations will follow biblical patterns for ministry and leadership selection. Congregations will select leaders through prayerful discernment of God's direction. Church leaders are chosen based on godly character, and spiritual gifts. Congregations call and may financially support pastors and ministry leaders. Persons called to the pastoral ministry will be examined on their faith, doctrine, and gifts by the congregation and conference. The pastor's ministry will be confirmed in a covenant with the congregation.
